President's Message

Happy New Year! I am very excited and honored that you all have given me the opportunity to lead the organization in 2016. We have a wonderful and dedicated group of ladies serving on the board and we are all very excited about this new year in Network! I believe this new board will do a fantastic job.

I am looking forward to the launch of the new website as it has several goals. It is the front door of our organization. It sets the tone for the credibility and vibrancy. This new site will represent the vibrant women in the group and will be more functional and a wonderful marketing tool for prospective members. Components of the site will include: forms that can be filled out online, news and updates, online payments, social media integration, member testimonials, photos of activities, event registration, mobile applications and more! Thanks to Cheryl Myers' previous leadership, the new logo and colors will give Network a fresh face. It has been asked why we need a new logo. All organizations need to examine their branding from time to time. We added the city and we believe that the fresh colors and appearance will more closely identify the organization as it exists today.

I hope that you will all focus on membership in 2016! We all need to work to bring more women to the meetings. Jann did a fantastic job as chair last year and we would like for each of us to try to add just one new member this year. That is very doable! We can really grow and take Network to the next level. I encourage each of you to post about us on your Facebook pages, share your attendance at the meetings, "Like" our page, invite your friends to do the same, and tag Network throughout the year. There is nothing like social media to spread the word - and it's FREE!

We have great programs planned this year and look forward to learning more about the community and ourselves. Please know that I am always interested in your ideas on how to make the organization better and stronger!

Let's get excited about OUR Network for Professional and Executive Women!

It's Tax Time!

Be sure to join our featured speaker and fellow member, CPA Deborah Ammons, as she addresses what we need to do to get our taxes filed in a timely and accurate manner.

Deborah is a partner with the public accounting firm Robinson, Grimes, & Company, P.C. in Columbus. For the past 21 years she has served in various roles in the tax department in the firm. Her principal areas of practice are taxation, health care services, employee benefits and estate planning for individual and small business clients. Her practice has focused on individual and small business tax planning including assistance with income, gift, estate and trust planning.

Deborah is a graduate of Columbus State University with a BBA in Finance. She is an alumni of Leadership Columbus and Harris County Adult Leadership and a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the Georgia Society of CPAs.

Deborah lives in Harris County and is married to Eddie Ammons. They have a five-year-old fur baby Cici who is a rescued mixed yellow lab/basenji. Outside of tax season, Deborah enjoys watching college football and relaxing at her beach cottage in Laguna Beach, Florida.
